

FUN FACTS ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Being a creative and talented artist is necessary for becoming a children's book illustrator

Featured:
Sequoia
Bostick

"I Love to draw and share art with youth in the community!"

Sequoia Bostick is an Illustrator, designer and multiple disciplinary artist! Just like her name she stands tall in her creations and is ready for anything to come her way!

Illustrations are meant to tell a story through pictures, they help expand the imagination and ignite the ideas. Illustrations are important to tell a story!

7 Fun Facts about the Illustrator of The Color of Stories

Sequoia Bostick

After graduating from Cleveland Institute of Art I began working in the community educating youth on the importance of sharing their voice through art! Now, I'm happy to share some fun facts about myself with YOU!

1. I'm afraid of snakes and deer.
2. I love taking things apart to see how they work.
3. My mom sent me to business camp when I was a kid.
4. As a child I used to sneak out early in the morning to catch butterflies in my moms garden.
5. I love taking care of plants.
6. I love classical music.
7. I've worked on multiple film sets as a costumer!

How cool is that!

Thanks Sequoia, for sharing a bit about yourself!

Tell us what YOU think, can you think of some fun or silly facts about yourself?

